

By the time you receive this the 2008-2009 racing season is over.

The boxes have had a mixed year – Happy Valley has been quite well attended, although usually there are seats available.

At Shatin, the HK$200 specials are usually sold out very quickly but on other race meetings, with a few exceptions, the attendance has not been good.

These boxes are a great facility for the Club and I hope next year more people realise what good value they represent and make use of them.

The highlight of the year was, as usual, our KCC Centenary Cup meeting – everyone who attended had a great time. If you have never been you should attend next year – it is not necessary to know anything about, or have an interest in, horseracing to have an enjoyable day out.

Syndicate News

Our Club syndicate started the season with high hopes but it was unfortunately all downhill.

After several promising trials the horse CRICKET DON failed to translate that promise into performance on the track and, after a few disappointing starts, the horse was declared unfit for racing by the Jockey Club vets and so was retired. To rub salt into the Syndicate’s wounds they failed to obtain a replacement in the recently announced list of new owners. When they recover from all this, I imagine they will reconvene to decide if they will continue.
